Rhode Island: City of Providence Announces 60-Day Amnesty Program for Tangible Taxes that Potentially Waives Interest

News: Mayor Smiley Announces Tax Amnesty Program for Motor Vehicles and Tangible Taxes, City of Providence, RI (5/1/24); Tax Amnesty Program: The City of Providence Announces Tax Amnesty Program for Motor Vehicle and Tangible Taxes, City of Providence, RI Tax Collector (5/24). The City of Providence, Rhode Island (City) Tax Collector recently announced that it will offer individuals and businesses the opportunity to participate in a tax amnesty program in which eligible participants potentially may receive a waiver of interest for overdue City motor vehicle and tangible taxes on the taxable years prior to the current fiscal year. According to the City Tax Collector, a waiver of interest may be made for eligible taxpayers if the request is made in writing, signed and dated by the taxpayer, and submitted along with payment in full within the designated 60-day period May 1, 2024 through June 30, 2024. The City Tax Collector notes that this amnesty program is designed to “assist those taxpayers that have had difficulty in paying their taxes in the past,” and “gives taxpayers the opportunity to resolve their tax delinquencies without any accruing interest.” Please contact us with any questions.
