Pennsylvania Department of State Reminds Businesses About New Annual Report Filing Requirement

Annual Reports in Pennsylvania, Penn. Dept. of State (1/25). A posting on the Pennsylvania Department of State's website explains to Pennsylvania business owners that beginning in 2025, "most domestic and foreign filing associations are required to file an Annual Report." According to the Pennsylvania Department of State's website, the deadline for filing this new Annual Report is based on the type of association, which includes:
